Morgan Wolfe was born in Fairfield, CA on Travis Air Force Base but now resides in Pleasanton, CA. She is going to be a Junior at Monte Vista High School in Alamo.

Morgan has been riding since she was two and has always loved dressage. Her first horse was an eighteen-year-old off-the-track Thoroughbred named Toast. They were only able to go up to First Level but he taught her how to get back on and to be a stronger, more confident rider.

Morgan currently rides Lunas, who just recently started his dressage career with her. With the guidance of her trainer, Katy Barglow, Morgan has done all of his training. In just one year, Lunas progressed from First to Fourth Level. In 2010, Lunas placed third at Second Level at the Northern CDS JR/YR Championships, and has only continued to improve. Morgan was also able to earn her USDF Bronze Medal on Lunas this year.

Morgan and Lunas also enjoy trail rides throughout Mt. Diablo with other girls from their barn. Lunas especially loves chasing squirrels and turkeys and having Cheez-It snacks. Morgan's goal is to one day take Lunas to the Prix St. Georges level. Meanwhile, Morgan continues to study in school to pursue a career in medicine.

"I am so excited to have made the Junior team for Region 7!" said Morgan. "Going to Kentucky is the icing on the cake for this year! I could have never done any of this without all of the support of the people around me, especially my family and Katy!"
